struck me multiple times. During this time Travis Vazquez's girlfriend, Jasmine Williams-Luster also struck me repeatedly with a metal bat, and two pit bull dogs attempted to bite me.

While being restrained, choked, pulled by my neck, and attacked by pit bull's, I used a small knife in self-defense and inflicted a non-life-threatening wound to Mr. Vazquez's lower back. At no point did Mr. Travis Vazquez attempt to flee or escape. He was the instigator, the dominant aggressor, and maintained physical control over me throughout the incident.

Bryan Kevin Smallwood, a neighbor residing at 4024 27th Avenue and present at the scene, gave a materially false and misleading statement to law enforcement officers under District Court case no. #D-05-CR-24-018576. Mr. Smallwood claimed that I stabbed Travis Vazquez after a simple scuffle and falsely stated that Mr. Vazquez was "trying to escape" when I allegedly pulled a Knife and stabbed him. This statement significantly distorted the events and omitted key facts - specifically that Travis Vazquez instigated the affray / fight / altercation, that I was being choked, I was being pulled by my neck, I was on the ground, and attacked by pit bull terriers before using any weapon.

Mr. Bryan Smallwood made false statements with the intent to deceive law enforcement officers and initiate felony criminal charges against me. His false statements influenced the officers' decision to arrest me and contributed to me being held without bond and charged initially with First Degree Assault. His false statements and omissions concealed that I was acting in self-defense during a multi-person and multi-animal attack.

Bryan Smallwood's actions constitute a knowing and intentional violation of Md. Criminal Law § 9-501, which prohibits making or causing a false statement to be

After instructing the dog to attack Juan McLendon, Jasmine Williams-Luster entered the residence at 4026 27th Avenue and returned moments later armed with a metal baseball bat. At the time of her return, Mr. McLendon had just stabbed Travis Vazquez out of self-defense and duress. Advice

I hereby certify that when the above named Defendant was brought before me for initial appearance, I:

ADVISED Defendant has appeared without an attorney and has a right to an attorney at the initial appearance, of the importance of having an attorney and, if indigent, the Public Defender will provide representation if the proceeding is before a judge or, a court-appointed attorney will provide representation if the proceeding is before a commissioner.

ADVISED Defendant has the right to waive the right to be represented by an attorney at the initial appearance and the waiver is only applicable to the initial appearance and not to any other hearing or proceeding.

ADVISED Defendant has an absolute right to hire a private attorney at Defendant's expense to defend against these charges. If the Defendant does not have the money to hire a private attorney, the Defendant is advised to apply right away to a District Court commissioner for representation by the Public Defender. A District Court commissioner makes the determination of whether the Defendant is financially eligible for the services of the Public Defender. After receipt of the Final Qualification, all further questions should be directed to the Public Defender's Office.

ADVISED Defendant any representation by a court-appointed attorney is provisional, limited to the initial appearance, and will terminate automatically upon conclusion of the hearing.

INFORMED Defendant of each offense charged and of the allowable penalties, including any mandatory or enhanced penalties, if any.

PROVIDED Defendant with a copy of the charging document since Defendant did not already have one.

REQUIRED Defendant to read the Notice of Advice of Right to Counsel.

ADVISED Defendant that if Defendant appears for trial without counsel, the Court could determine that the Defendant waived counsel and the Defendant may have to proceed to trial unrepresented by counsel.

INFORMED Defendant of Affidavit for Indigent, the Defendant completed the requested affidavit and the commissioner determined with the criteria set forth in Code, Criminal Procedure Article §16-210 (b) and (c) whether the Defendant qualifies for a court-appointed attorney.

INFORMED Defendant that this preliminary determination is for the purpose of representation at the initial appearance only.

DETERMINED DEFENDANT IS INDIGENT.

ADVISED Defendant has the right to be represented by an attorney at the initial appearance and, if no other attorney has entered an appearance you shall be represented by the court-appointed attorney, unless the Defendant waives the right to be represented by an attorney at the initial appearance.

ENTRY OF APPEARANCE: Defendant was represented at initial appearance by Private Attorney.

Received:

Attorney's Name: THOMAS MOONEY

STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE
ARREST ON TRAFFIC / NATURAL RESOURCES / MASS TRANSIT CITATIONS / CRIMINAL CHARGES / MUNICIPAL ORDINANCES / PUBLIC LOCAL LAWS

On 11/25/2024 at approximately 2017 Hours I Officer Wyatt#4408 responded to 4024 27th Ave, Temple Hills Maryland 20748 for an Assault with a weapon call for service. Upon arrival I seen two group of individuals verbally arguing with each other from from one house to the other. I noticed multiple people shouting frantically " He's Stabbed" inside the residence, I quickly entered the home (4027 27th Ave) where I seen Victim 1(Vazquez, Travis Phil) laying face down with a deep laceration to the lower of his back. Moments later additional officers arrive on scene and quickly apprehend the Suspect (McLendon, Juan Petis). The Witness (Smallwood, Bryan Kevin) that lives next door to V1 stated the two individuals were having a verbal disagreement because the Suspect (McLendon, Juan Petis) was using his leaf blower late at night and blowing the leaves in the direction of V1's Home. Witness1 advised the two Individuals got in each others face and things escalated quickly. Witness 1 advised officers that a scuffle had broke out with punches being thrown and once V1 tried to escape the situation S1 pulled a small knife and intentionally stabbed V1 causing laceration to his lower back. The incident was captured on Witness1 Cellular device. Paramedics (829) arrived on seen and treated his laceration wound. (P423) Detective Mendez#4129 was notified and arrived on scene for further a invetigation. S1 was taken into custody transported to Oxon Hill Police station for further questions. S1 denied making a statement on the situation. S1 was later transported to Department of corrections In Upper Marlboro for processing.

All of the above events occurred in Prince George's County, Maryland.

One of three scenarios may occur:

- The radiologist will agree with the findings of the Emergency Department doctor or PA
- The radiologist might notice something that was not seen by your Emergency Department doctor or PA and is related to your symptoms
- The radiologist might discover something that was not expected and unrelated to your symptoms

Always obtain a copy of your final imaging report to bring to your primary doctor in the event that there are findings that need follow up treatment, imaging, or subsequent monitoring. We will attempt to contact you by phone if there are any abnormal findings that need attention. If we are unable to reach you, we will send a letter by mail. You can also obtain a copy of your imaging report within your myMedstar Portal. MedStar- Care for Head Trauma in Adults

CALL MEDSTAR HEALTH CONCUSSION CLINIC FOR YOUR FOLLOW UP CARE- (855) 748-4868

You have been diagnosed with concussion or have sustained an injury which may lead to concussion symptoms in the coming days. A concussion is a brain injury that causes temporary changes in the way the brain works. This is usually as a result of impact to the head or a sudden "whiplash" type movement of the head and neck. These injuries do not involve bleeding, bruising or swelling of the brain. A person doesn't have to lose consciousness ("pass out") to have a concussion.

While you were in the hospital or urgent care, the health care team asked about your injury, reviewed your symptoms, and performed a physical exam. The medical team may have treated you for pain and nausea or vomiting with medicines and IV fluids. Special tests such as computed tomography (CT) scan or MRI are not usually needed for patients with concussion.

Symptoms of concussion include: headache, dizziness, light or sound sensitivity, double or blurry vision, nausea, imbalance, and feeling "foggy" or "out of it". The symptoms usually start within 1 to 3 days of injury. Some symptoms like headaches, dizziness, and sensitivity to light or noise — as well as mood, thinking, and behavior changes — may continue for several weeks*.

The following treatment plan will help you recover:

REST: Most people recover from a concussion with proper care and rest, though healing time is different for everyone. After coming home from the hospital, you will need time to rest and sleep. You do not have to ask someone to wake you up several times while you are sleeping, but if/when you do wake up, you can ask someone to assess your alertness and ability to interact. Report progressive irritability or lethargy to your health care provider or call 911. After the first 1-2 days, it is important to establish a regular sleep schedule. It is not necessary or recommended to "sleep as much as possible".

MEDICATIONS: Your health care provider may recommend an over-the-counter pain medication. In general, acetaminophen (Tylenol) may be recommended during the first few days after injury. Please ask your clinician when it is appropriate to use ibuprofen (Advil, Motrin). However, “rebound headaches” are a possible side effect if these pain medications are used daily for more than three days, so caution should be used.

ELECTRONICS AND COGNITIVE ACTIVITIES: For the first 1-2 days, you may need to avoid electronics and screens, as well as sustained reading. After an initial rest period, these activities can be attempted in blocks of time that do not worsen symptoms.

SCHOOL/WORK: Most people can return to work or classes within 1-3 days, even if they continue to have some symptoms. In many cases students can start with “passive learning”—that is being present in class to listen, without the expectation that they will participate in discussion or complete graded assignments. Often taking short breaks and resting for 10-15 minutes will allow symptoms to improve so that you can return to class and pace yourself through the day. Your health care provider will help advise you regarding any adjustments needed. For working adults- it may help to try working in blocks of time that do not worsen symptoms. If you drive, operate machinery, or perform other work that may be dangerous, you may need to return to modified duty while your symptoms improve. Your health care provider will need to clear you for driving, lifting, climbing, or activities that “jar” your head and neck. Your follow-up clinician can also help determine when you are ready to return to higher functioning cognitive tasks.

EXERCISE: Although you will not be ready for contact sports or vigorous physical activities until cleared by your health care provider, you can start aerobic activities at a level that does not aggravate your symptoms. Consider short walks, low-key activities at home with family members, and helping with light chores.

DIET AND FLUIDS: Ensure that you eat a well-balanced diet, high in protein, and do not skip meals. You should try to drink at least eight glasses of water/day and you may need to take a water bottle to work.

SLEEP: After the first 1-2 days, the goal is to return to a normal sleep schedule. While you may need to take a short nap during the day, if naps become extended and interfere with getting to bed on time, then shorten (or eliminate) naps so that you maintain the goal of 8-10 hours of sleep at night.

RETURN TO ATHLETICS & CONTACT SPORTS: You may start to feel better before the concussion is fully healed. But all symptoms — including those affecting mood, thinking, and balance — must be back to normal, without the help of medicine, before you can return to contact sports/activities. Getting another injury before the concussion fully heals could cause serious, long-term health problems. Some people have even died after getting a second concussion before the first one has fully healed.* You should be asymptomatic, back to full academics/work, and have a normal neurologic exam, before beginning a “Return to Sport (RTS)” protocol . Anyone diagnosed or suspected to have a concussion, should be returned to activities and sport under the guidance of their pediatrician, primary care provider or a concussion specialist.

ALCOHOL/DRUG USE: You should avoid all alcohol and drugs (including marijuana/THC) during your recovery. These can make symptoms worse, may lead to rebound symptoms, and could affect recovery.

DRIVING: You should not drive if you are having any confusion, vision symptoms, or slowed reaction time, or if you feel “foggy” or “out of it”. Your primary doctor or specialist can discuss when it is safe to return to driving.

There are many types of head injuries. Head injuries can be as minor as a small bump, or they can be a serious medical issue. More severe head injuries include:

- A jarring injury to the brain (concussion).
- A bruise (contusion) of the brain. This means there is bleeding in the brain that can cause swelling.
- A cracked skull (skull fracture).
- Bleeding in the brain that collects, clots, and forms a bump (hematoma).

After a head injury, most problems occur within the first 24 hours, but side effects may occur up to 7–10 days after the injury. It is important to watch your condition for any changes. You may need to be observed in the emergency department or urgent care, or you may be admitted to the hospital.

What are the causes?

There are many possible causes of a head injury. Serious head injuries may be caused by car accidents, bicycle or motorcycle accidents, sports injuries, falls, or being struck by an object.

What are the symptoms?

Symptoms of a head injury include a contusion, bump, or bleeding at the site of the injury. Other physical symptoms may include:

- Headache.

Contusion

A contusion is a deep bruise. Contusions are the result of a blunt injury to tissues and muscle fibers under the skin. The injury causes bleeding under the skin. The skin overlying the contusion may turn blue, purple, or yellow. Minor injuries will give you a painless contusion, but more severe injuries cause contusions that may stay painful and swollen for a few weeks.

Follow these instructions at home:

Pay attention to any changes in your symptoms. Let your health care provider know about them. Take these actions to relieve your pain.

Managing pain, stiffness, and swelling

- Use resting, icing, applying pressure (compression), and raising (elevating) the injured area. This is often called the RICE strategy.
 - 46 Rest the injured area. Return to your normal activities as told by your health care provider. Ask your health care provider what activities are safe for you.
 - 46 If directed, put ice on the injured area:
 - 52 Put ice in a plastic bag.

Emergency Documentation

- 52 Place a towel between your skin and the bag.
- 52 Leave the ice on for 20 minutes, 2–3 times per day.
- 46 If directed, apply light compression to the injured area using an elastic bandage. Make sure the bandage is not wrapped too tightly. Remove and reapply the bandage as directed by your health care provider.
- 46 If possible, raise (elevate) the injured area above the level of your heart while you are sitting or lying down.

General instructions

- Take over-the-counter and prescription medicines only as told by your health care provider.
- Keep all follow-up visits as told by your health care provider. This is important.

Contact a health care provider if:

- Your symptoms do not improve after several days of treatment.
- Your symptoms get worse.
- You have difficulty moving the injured area.

Discharge Instructions for Patients with Pending Radiology Results

You had radiology imaging as part of your evaluation in the Emergency Department. The Emergency Department doctor or PA caring for you has performed a preliminary interpretation of your image(s). The image(s) will be reviewed by the radiologist in the morning and there will be a final report of the findings.

One of three scenarios may occur:

- The radiologist will agree with the findings of the Emergency Department doctor or PA
- The radiologist might notice something that was not seen by your Emergency Department doctor or PA and is related to your symptoms
- The radiologist might discover something that was not expected and unrelated to your symptoms

Always obtain a copy of your final imaging report to bring to your primary doctor in the event that there are findings that need follow up treatment, imaging, or subsequent monitoring. We will attempt to contact you by phone if there are any abnormal findings that need attention. If we are unable to reach you, we will send a letter by mail. You can also obtain a copy of your imaging report within your myMedstar Portal. If you are unable to obtain your results within 7 days, please contact the Medical Records department at the hospital in which you were treated.

Emergency Documentation

There are many types of head injuries. Head injuries can be as minor as a small bump, or they can be a serious medical issue. More severe head injuries include:

- A jarring injury to the brain (concussion).
- A bruise (contusion) of the brain. This means there is bleeding in the brain that can cause swelling.
- A cracked skull (skull fracture).
- Bleeding in the brain that collects, clots, and forms a bump (hematoma).

After a head injury, most problems occur within the first 24 hours, but side effects may occur up to 7–10 days after the injury. It is important to watch your condition for any changes. You may need to be observed in the emergency department or urgent care, or you may be admitted to the hospital.

What are the causes?

There are many possible causes of a head injury. Serious head injuries may be caused by car accidents, bicycle or motorcycle accidents, sports injuries, falls, or being struck by an object.

What are the symptoms?

Symptoms of a head injury include a contusion, bump, or bleeding at the site of the injury. Other physical symptoms may include:

- Headache.

Emergency Documentation

- 46 Watching TV.
- 46 Playing memory games and puzzles.
- 46 Job-related work or homework.
- 46 Working on the computer, using social media, and texting.
- Avoid activities that could cause another head injury, such as playing sports, until your health care provider approves. Having another head injury, especially before the first one has healed, can be dangerous.
- Ask your health care provider when it is safe for you to return to your regular activities, including work or school. Ask your health care provider for a step-by-step plan for gradually returning to activities.
- Ask your health care provider when you can drive, ride a bicycle, or use heavy machinery. Your ability to react may be slower after a brain injury. Do not do these activities if you are dizzy.

Lifestyle

- Do not drink alcohol until your health care provider approves. Do not use drugs. Alcohol and certain drugs may slow your recovery and can put you at risk of further injury.
- If it is harder than usual to remember things, write them down.
- If you are easily distracted, try to do one thing at a time.
- Talk with family members or close friends when making important decisions.
- Tell your friends, family, a trusted colleague, and work manager about your injury, symptoms, and restrictions. Have them watch for any new or worsening problems.

Contusion

A contusion is a deep bruise. Contusions are the result of a blunt injury to tissues and muscle fibers under the skin. The injury causes bleeding under the skin. The skin overlying the contusion may turn blue, purple, or yellow. Minor injuries will give you a painless contusion, but more severe injuries cause contusions that may stay painful and swollen for a few weeks.

Follow these instructions at home:

Pay attention to any changes in your symptoms. Let your health care provider know about them. Take these actions to relieve your pain.

Managing pain, stiffness, and swelling

- Use resting, icing, applying pressure (compression), and raising (elevating) the injured area. This is often called the RICE strategy.
 - 46 Rest the injured area. Return to your normal activities as told by your health care provider. Ask your health care provider what activities are safe for you.
 - 46 If directed, put ice on the injured area:
 - 52 Put ice in a plastic bag.
 - 52 Place a towel between your skin and the bag.
 - 52 Leave the ice on for 20 minutes, 2–3 times per day.

MedStar- Care for Head Trauma in Adults

CALL MEDSTAR HEALTH CONCUSSION CLINIC FOR YOUR FOLLOW UP CARE- (855) 748-4868

You have been diagnosed with concussion or have sustained an injury which may lead to concussion symptoms in the coming days. A concussion is a brain injury that causes temporary changes in the way the brain works. This is usually as a result of impact to the head or a sudden “whiplash” type movement of the head and neck. These injuries do not involve bleeding, bruising or swelling of the brain. A person doesn't have to lose consciousness (“pass out”) to have a concussion.

While you were in the hospital or urgent care, the health care team asked about your injury, reviewed your symptoms, and performed a physical exam. The medical team may have treated you for pain and nausea or vomiting with medicines and IV fluids. Special tests such as computed tomography (CT) scan or MRI are not usually needed for patients with concussion.

Symptoms of concussion include: headache, dizziness, light or sound sensitivity, double or blurry vision, nausea, imbalance, and feeling “foggy” or “out of it”. The symptoms usually start within 1 to 3 days of injury. Some symptoms like headaches, dizziness, and sensitivity to light or noise — as well as mood, thinking, and behavior changes — may continue for several weeks*.

The following treatment plan will help you recover:

REST: Most people recover from a concussion with proper care and rest, though healing time is different for everyone. After coming home from the hospital, you will need time to rest and sleep. You do not have to ask someone to wake you up several times while you are sleeping, but if/when you do wake up, you can ask someone to assess your alertness and ability to interact. Report progressive irritability or lethargy to your health care provider or call 911. After the first 1-2 days, it is important to establish a regular sleep schedule. It is not necessary or recommended to “sleep as much as possible”.

MEDICATIONS: Your health care provider may recommend an over-the-counter pain medication. In general, acetaminophen (Tylenol) may be recommended during the first few days after injury. Please ask your clinician when it is appropriate to use ibuprofen (Advil, Motrin). However, “rebound headaches” are a possible side effect if these pain medications are used daily for more than three days, so caution should be used.

ELECTRONICS AND COGNITIVE ACTIVITIES: For the first 1-2 days, you may need to avoid electronics and screens, as well as sustained reading. After an initial rest period, these activities can be attempted in blocks of time that do not worsen symptoms.

SCHOOL/WORK: Most people can return to work or classes within 1-3 days, even if they continue to have some symptoms. In many cases students can start with “passive learning”—that is being present in class to listen, without the expectation that they will participate in discussion or complete graded assignments. Often taking short breaks and resting for 10-15 minutes will allow symptoms to improve so that you can return to class and pace yourself through the day. Your health care provider will help advise you regarding any adjustments needed. For working adults- it may help to try working in blocks of time that do not worsen symptoms. If you drive, operate machinery, or perform other work that may be dangerous, you may need to return to modified duty while your symptoms improve. Your health care provider will need to clear you for driving, lifting, climbing, or activities that "jar" your head and neck. Your follow-up clinician can also help determine when you are ready to return to higher functioning cognitive tasks.

EXERCISE: Although you will not be ready for contact sports or vigorous physical activities until cleared by your health care provider, you can start aerobic activities at a level that does not aggravate your symptoms. Consider short walks, low-key activities at home with family members, and helping with light chores.

DIET AND FLUIDS: Ensure that you eat a well-balanced diet, high in protein, and do not skip meals. You should try to drink at least eight glasses of water/day and you may need to take a water bottle to work.

SLEEP: After the first 1-2 days, the goal is to return to a normal sleep schedule. While you may need to take a short nap during the day, if naps become extended and interfere with getting to bed on time, then shorten (or eliminate) naps so that you maintain the goal of 8-10 hours of sleep at night.

RETURN TO ATHLETICS & CONTACT SPORTS: You may start to feel better before the concussion is fully healed. But all symptoms — including those affecting mood, thinking, and balance — must be back to normal, without the help of medicine, before you can return to contact sports/activities. Getting another injury before the concussion fully heals could cause serious, long-term health problems. Some people have even died after getting a second concussion before the first one has fully healed.* You should be asymptomatic, back to full academics/work, and have a normal neurologic exam, before beginning a "Return to Sport (RTS)" protocol . Anyone diagnosed or suspected to have a concussion, should be returned to activities and sport under the guidance of their pediatrician, primary care provider or a concussion specialist.

ALCOHOL/DRUG USE: You should avoid all alcohol and drugs (including marijuana/THC) during your recovery. These can make symptoms worse, may lead to rebound symptoms, and could affect recovery.

DRIVING: You should not drive if you are having any confusion, vision symptoms, or slowed reaction time, or if you feel "foggy" or "out of it". Your primary doctor or specialist can discuss when it is safe to return to driving.

FOLLOW UP: You should schedule a follow up appointment with your primary care doctor or a concussion specialist within 2-5 days. Be sure to tell them that you were seen in the Emergency Department or Urgent Care. At this appointment you can discuss work accommodations, return to sports protocol, and any other concerns. The MedStar Health Concussion Clinic treats patients with acute concussions, call: 855-748-4868.

the prosecution resulting in late disclosure that forced a continuance and prolonged restraint on my liberty.

Background Facts

On November 24, 2024, I was charged in case no. D-05-CR-24-018576 with First Degree Assault, Second Degree Assault, and Reckless Endangerment. No “discovery” was ever produced in that case. No A.S.A. (Assistant State Attorney) was assigned to this case. On February 24, 2025, case no. D-05-CR-24-018576 was “nolle prossed.”

Then, on March 13, 2025, the same charges with no video evidence and no “discovery” was filed under case no. D-05-CR-25-002111. No A.S.A. was assigned for over three months after the refilling of charges. Polly Berman entered her appearance as A.S.A. on June 24, 2025, six days before trial on June 30, 2025.

Since the initial filing of case no. D-05-CR-24-018576, I received no “discovery” at all until June 30, 2025. On the day of trial, the State produced the alleged victim’s video of the November 24, 2024, incident and limited photographs of the alleged victim’s wound. The late production of “discovery” required a continuance so that I could go over the newly provided evidence with my defense counsel.

On April 16, 2025, I filed a “Demand for a Bill of Particulars” to obtain clarity essential to trial preparation. As of September 5, 2025, no substantive response to the “Demand for a Bill of Particulars” has been provided from A.S.A. Polly Berman.

Under Maryland Rule 4-263, in the Circuit Court, the State must disclose required “discovery” within 30 days after the earlier of the entry of appearance of defense counsel. Md. Rule 4-263(h)(1). The State must furnish core “discovery” without request and is under a continuing duty to supplement; time requirements apply. The rule imposes due diligence on the State, and the primary purpose is to prevent surprise and permit an adequate defense. I filed a timely “Demand for a Bill of Particulars” and within ten days after service of the demand, the State has not filed a reply furnishing the requested particulars (or otherwise respond consistent with the Rule). The particulars are to guard against surprise by limiting the scope of proof and to supply the essential facts of the charge; “discovery” is not a substitute for a “Bill of Particulars.”

RULES ALLEGED VIOLATED

Maryland Attorneys’ Rules of Professional Conduct (MARPC, Title 19)

- The State, with ASA Berman as assigned prosecutor, produced the alleged victim’s video on June 30, 2025—the trial date—and otherwise provided me with only limited photographs of the alleged victim’s wound. This forced a defense continuance. MARPC 19-303.8(d) (Special responsibilities of a prosecutor); MARPC 19-301.1 (Competence) and 19-301.3 (Diligence); MARPC 19-303.4(a), (d) (Fairness to Opposing Party and Counsel); MARPC 19-303.2 (Expediting Litigation); MARPC 19-308.4(d).
- I filed a Bill of Particulars specifically to reduce unfair surprise; no substantive response was provided before the trial setting. MARPC 19-301.1 (Competence) and 19-301.3 (Diligence); MARPC 19-303.2 (Expediting Litigation); MARPC 19-303.4(a), (d) (Fairness to Opposing Party and Counsel).
- ASA Berman entered her appearance on June 24, 2025, only six days before the scheduled trial on June 30, 2025; this was after re-filing of charges in March 2025 and months of litigation activity. MARPC 19-301.3 (Diligence); MARPC 19-303.2 (Expediting Litigation); MARPC 19-308.4(d) (Misconduct).

- On June 30, 2025—the date set for trial—the State first produced the alleged victim’s video, which is central to my self-defense theory. This delay impaired my ability to consult counsel and forced a continuance. MARPC 19-303.8(d) (Special Responsibilities of a Prosecutor).
- ASA Berman’s eleventh-hour entry (June 24, 2025) and eve-of-trial disclosure contributed to delay and prejudice. MARPC 19-303.2 (Expediting Litigation); MARPC 19-301.1 (Competence); 19-301.3 (Diligence); MARPC 19-308.4(d).

Because of the State’s lateness and non-response, I:

- have had my Constitutional and statutory rights violated,
- the State has abused the process,
- endured 92 days under restraint, and
- suffered impairment of my defense evidence (overwritten home security cameras).

REQUESTED ACTION

I respectfully and humbly request that this bar open a formal investigation into ASA Polly A.J. Berman (CPF no. # 2311281030) and, upon finding sufficient cause, pursue appropriate discipline for violations of MARPC 19-303.8(d) (timely disclosure), 19-301.1 (competence), 19-301.3 (diligence), 19-303.2 (expediting litigation), 19-303.4 (fairness to opposing party and counsel), 19-303.8(d) (Special Responsibilities of a Prosecutor), and 19-308.4(d) (conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice). I seek the sanctions warranted by the record (including, if appropriate, reprimand, suspension, recommendation for dismissal of my ongoing criminal case, or any other discipline); a response to the “Demand for a Bill of Particulars”; and require remedial measures tailored to prevent recurrence, including (a) completion of prosecutor-specific ethics education addressing Maryland discovery obligations under Rule 4-263 and the duty to answer a “Bill of Particulars” under Rule 4-241; (b) adoption of a written discovery-timeliness and particulars-response protocol within the Prince George’s County State’s Attorney’s Office, with clear internal deadlines and supervisory review; (c) designation of a discovery/ethics compliance coordinator to audit open felony and serious-misdemeanor matters for timely disclosures and bill-of-particulars compliance; and (d) quarterly certifications to Bar Counsel for 12 months demonstrating adherence to these protocols. I would also request any additional relief the Bar Counsel deems just and proper to remedy the harm caused here and to safeguard future compliance with the Maryland Attorneys’ Rules of Professional Conduct.

On 11/25/2024 at approximately 2017 Hours I Officer Wyatt#4408 responded to 4024 27th Ave, Temple Hills Maryland 20748 for an Assault with a weapon call for service. Upon arrival I seen two group of individuals verbally arguing with each other from from one house to the other. I noticed multiple people shouting frantically " He's Stabbed" inside the residence, I quickly entered the home (4027 27th Ave) where I seen Victim 1(Vazquez, Travis Phil) laying face down with a deep laceration to the lower of his back. Moments later additional officers arrive on scene and quickly apprehend the Suspect (McLendon, Juan Petis). The Witness (Smallwood, Bryan Kevin) that lives next door to V1 stated the two individuals were having a verbal disagreement because the Suspect (McLendon, Juan Petis) was using his leaf blower late at night and blowing the leaves in the direction of V1's Home. Witness1 advised the two Individuals got in each others face and things escalated quickly. Witness 1 advised officers that a scuffle had broke out with punches being thrown and once V1 tried to escape the situation S1 pulled a small knife and intentionally stabbed V1 causing laceration to his lower back. The incident was captured on Witness1 Cellular device. Paramedics (829) arrived on seen and treated his laceration wound. (P423) Detective Mendez#4129 was notified and arrived on scene for further a invetigation. S1 was taken into custody transported to Oxon Hill Police station for further questions. Re: Request for Public Nuisance Hearing — Case No. 98-24

APR11'25 3:11PM

Dear Commission Members,

I am writing to formally request a public nuisance hearing regarding the ongoing issues with the Pitbull terriers kept at 4026 27th Avenue, Temple Hills, MD 20748, by the owners, Travis Vazquez phone number. (240) 630-9819 and Jasmine Williams-Luster phone number (240) 606-0345, concerning Case No # 98-24.

Despite previous notifications, the animals continue to create a public nuisance by running at large and trespassing on private property located at 4023 and 4025 27th Avenue, causing discomfort and concern for all neighbors. As of recently, I have had to call the Prince George's County Police Department under RMS# PP25033000000868, the Officer responding was CPL. Cooper badge no # 3772 and RMS# PP25041000001264, the officer responding was Officer Kelsick badge no #4417. As requested, I am elderly, and my son is prepared to appear on my behalf before the Commission as the complaining witness in this case.

I have maintained a detailed date and time log of the incidents and have collected photographs and video evidence to present during the hearing.

Please let me know the next steps or the scheduled hearing date. I appreciate your assistance in helping to resolve this matter.

Sincerely,

Charles McLendon

alleged victim's video in case no. C-16-CR-25-000762 that the State produced to me on June 30, 2025 (my second trial date pertaining to the same charges and over 7 months after November 24, 2024), which forced a continuance so that I could review the video with my defense counsel.

Tanner J. Wise proceeding to dismiss/"nolle prosequi" all three applications of charges that are supported with overwhelming evidence, in the face of the State held video evidence, is prejudicial to the administration of justice and inconsistent with prosecutorial ethical duties.

CHRONOLOGY

On June 30, 2025, the State produced the alleged victim's video pertaining to the incident and same charges in case no. D-05-CR-24-018576. The video show's me being choked; strangled; bit at by pit bull terriers; called a nigga by the alleged victim, Travis Vasquez, who is white; and struck with a baseball bat multiple times. Because of the "discovery" rule violation, the trial court granted me a continuance so I could review the video with defense counsel.

After reviewing the video, I realized I now had evidence showing that I was choked, strangled, bit at by pit bull terriers, called a nigga by Travis Vasquez, that Travis Vasquez never tried to escape the fight, and Jasmine Williams-Luster struck me multiple times with a baseball bat. I promptly filed application of charges against Travis Vasquez, Jasmine Williams-Luster, and Bryan Smallwood with the county Commissioner office. I identified in the application of charges that there was video evidence. I even had a transcript generated from the video in question.

A.S.A. Tanner J. Wise filed a notice to "nolle prosequi" in each of the three cases that I filed application of charges for. My grand jury screening for the assault charges against Travis Vasquez was cancelled also.

I never received any timely, meaningful opportunity to confer as a victim before the A.S.A. initiated and made these decisions. I was not asked to present or go over the video with the A.S.A. with defense counsel present.

Because of the posture of the A.S.A. I am left to believe that rules of professional conduct as well as ABA (American Bar Association) model rules were violated in the proceedings pertaining to the application of charges, the screening process, and the filing of intent to “nolle prosequi” each of the three cases where I am the victim.

RULES ALLEGED VIOLATED

Maryland Attorneys’ Rules of Professional Conduct (MARPC, Title 19)

- Dismissing citizen-filed cases while failing to honor a victim’s right to confer and discounting decisive, State held evidence (the June 30th video) prejudices the administration of justice. Rule 19-308.4(d) — Misconduct: “conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice.”
- A lawyer must make reasonable efforts to expedite litigation consistent with [victim] interests; abrupt dismissal despite readily available, case-critical evidence (already in State possession) reflects a failure to expedite a just resolution. Rule 19-303.2 — Expediting Litigation.
- To the extent the State ignored or failed to consider the video and corroboration—or impeded fair access to material evidence—this raises fairness concerns under 3.4. Rule 19-303.4 — Fairness to Opposing Party and Attorney.

- If any representation to the court (or in filings) suggested lack of evidence or discovery completeness despite the June 30 video and corroboration, that would implicate candor duties. Rule 19-303.3 — Candor Toward the Tribunal.
- Maryland’s Rule 19-303.8 (Prosecutor) mirrors ABA 3.8; prosecutors bear special duties in screening and disclosure. The June 30 late production in my related case, and failure to weigh that evidence before nolle pros in my citizen cases, is inconsistent with those obligations. Rule 19-303.8 — Special Responsibilities of a Prosecutor.

Separate from ethics rules, Crim. Proc. § 11-104 requires notice and a right to confer around major decisions, including “nolle prosequi’s”; ignoring those statutory rights supports a 19-308.4(d) violation.

- Prosecutors are “ministers of justice,” not merely advocates; duties include ensuring decisions rest on sufficient evidence and timely disclosure of favorable information (e.g., 3.8(d)). The handling of evidence and the cases here conflicts with those principles. ABA Model Rule 3.8 — Special Responsibilities of a Prosecutor.
- Used here to benchmark the duty to avoid avoidable delay/gamesmanship where material evidence exists. ABA Model Rule 3.2 — Expediting Litigation.
- These parallel Maryland provisions provide persuasive guidance for Bar Counsel’s analysis of the conduct alleged. ABA Model Rule 3.3 — Candor Toward the Tribunal; 3.4 — Fairness to Opposing Party and Counsel; 8.4(d) — Conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice.

REQUESTED ACTION

I respectfully and humbly request that this bar investigate whether ASA Tanner J. Wise (CPF no. # 2502191002) violated MARPC 19-308.4(d), 19-303.2, 19-303.4, and 19-303.3, and whether his/her handling of the notice to “nolle prosequi” respected my rights under Crim. Proc. § 11-104. If merit is found, I request appropriate discipline and remedial guidance to ensure victim conferral occurs before dismissals and State held evidence (the video at the center of this complaint) is considered in citizen filed charges for screening.

This was the first time that an A.S.A. was assigned to prosecute these charges. There was no A.S.A. assigned to case no. D-05-CR-24-0185676 where I spent several months incarcerated with no bond, no discovery, and no constitutional required due process. 2.) Bill of Particulars – I filed a “Bill of Particulars” in April of 2025, and the State as of the date of this Bar Counsel Complaint has not provided a statutory required Particulars as mandated in Maryland Rule 4-241. 3.) Victim-Conferral in Citizen filed Cases – After I filed three applications for statement of charges against Travis Vasquez case no. D-05-CR-25-000148; Jasmine Williams-Luster case no. Tanner J. Wise decided to enter notices in each case to “nolle prosequi” without providing me any timely meaningful opportunity to confer as a victim before the A.S.A. initiated and made these decisions. I was not asked to present or go over the video evidence with the A.S.A. with my defense counsel present. 4.) Racial-Animus Impeachment Ignored: The State-held video capture’s Travis Vasquez who is a white Hispanic repeatedly calling me a “nigga” during the affray (e.g., “Nigga, I am addressing you;” “. . . come do something”). This is textbook impeachment/bias evidence. Despite possessing it, the State’s Attorney Office disclosed it only hours before the trial date, did not engage it before terminating my application of charges, and the State’s Attorney’s Office did not review the charges against me once the video was provided by the alleged victim on June 30th.

These failures of subordinates within the State Attorney's Office for Prince George's County point to supervisory failures by Mrs. Tara H. Jackson under M.A.R.P.C. 19-305.1(a)-(c).

CHRONOLOGY

On February 24, 2025, the District Court case against me (D-05-CR-24-018576) was nolle prossed. The State then re-filled the same charges on March 13, 2025, (D-05-CR-25-002111), and I later prayed for a jury trial in the Circuit Court (C-16-CR-25-000762). Despite months of case activity, no prosecutor of record appeared until June 24, 2025, when A.S.A. Polly A. J. Berman entered her appearance six days before the scheduled June 30th trial. I had earlier filed a Bill of Particulars in April 2025, but the State never answered it, depriving me of the factual "Particulars" needed to prepare for trial. I received no discovery at all from the initial filing (D-05-CR-24-018576) and finally received video evidence on June 30, 2025, which depicts me being choked/strangled, bit at by pit bull terriers, struck with a baseball bat, and captures Travis Vasquez (a white Hispanic) repeatedly calling me a "nigga". Relying on the State produced video, I filed citizen statement of charges with the Commissioner against the three witnesses/neighbors. Soon thereafter, A.S.A. Tanner J. Wise submitted notices to "nolle prosequi" those three cases without providing me a meaningful right to confer as the victim under Crim. Proc. § 11-104.

These events occurred under the supervision and policies of State's Attorney Tara H. Jackson, whose office wide systems failed to ensure timely discovery, compliance with Rule 4-241 (Bill of Particulars), adherence to Rule 4-263 (timely, usable discovery), and respect for the victim's right to confer before dismissing the applicable charges against my adverse witnesses/neighbors.

RULES ALLEGED VIOLATED

A. M.A.R.P.C. 19-305.1 (Responsibilities of Partners, Managers, and Supervisory Lawyers):

- a) this rule requires reasonable measures to ensure subordinate lawyers conform to the M.A.R.P.C. The repeated failures by Polly Berman (no Particulars response; trial-day discovery disclosure) and Tanner Wise (nolle prosequi without a victim conferral despite the State held exculpatory/impeachment video) reflect deficient supervision, training, and systems in place.
- b) Supervisors must make reasonable efforts to ensure subordinate compliance.
- c) A supervisor is responsible for subordinate violations if the supervisor orders, ratifies, or knows of misconduct when consequences can be avoided/mitigated but fails to act.

The State's Attorney Office for Prince George's County Maryland had or applied no effective system to (i) ensure timely discovery and supplementation under Rule 4-263, (ii) ensure Rule-compliant Bills of Particulars under Rule 4-241, (iii) ensure a documented victim-conferral process under CP §11-104 before the nolle prosequi of citizen filed application of statement of charge cases, or (iv) flag and timely disclose impeachment/bias evidence (the racial-animus video with audio) well before trial on June 30, 2025.

B. Subordinate Violations Attributable to Supervisory Failure

- Discovery/Timeliness: Md. Rule 4-263 requires timely disclosure and a continuing duty to supplement in time for effective use at trial. Producing the critical recording on the trial date breached that duty and forced a continuance. In violation of M.A.R.P.C. 19-303.8(d) (timely disclosure of exculpatory/mitigating/impeachment), 19-303.4(d) (fairness: diligent discovery compliance), 19-303.2 (expedite litigation), 19-301.1/19-301.3 (competence/diligence), 19-308.4(d) (prejudicial to the administration of justice).
- Bill of Particulars: Md. Rule 4-241 exists to limit surprise and narrow the scope of proof; pointing to discovery is not a substitute. Non-responsiveness violates fairness and competence/diligence and undermines expeditious, fair adjudication under M.A.R.P.C. (19-303.4(c), 19-301.1, 19-301.3, 19-303.2, 19-308.4(d)).
- Victim's Rights: CP §11-104 provides a right to notice and to confer regarding major decisions, including nolle prosequi. Dismissing the citizen filed application for statement of charges cases without conferral implicates violations under M.A.R.P.C. 19-308.4(d) and 19-303.2 and reflects deficient office policy under M.A.R.P.C. 19-305.1.
- Racial-Animus Impeachment: To be called a “nigga” by an individual who considers themselves to be a white Hispanic on video in possession of the State is classic Giglio impeachment/bias. A prosecutor's M.A.R.P.C. 19-303.8(d) duty includes timely disclosure of impeachment evidence; the State's Attorney Office for Prince George's County Maryland disclosed this evidence only on the trial date and did not integrate it into screening decisions before filing notices to “nolle prosecui” the application of charges against three State witnesses and in deciding to pursue criminal charges against me. That further implicates M.A.R.P.C. 19-303.4(d), 19-303.2, and 19-308.4(d). If race influenced these decisions, M.A.R.P.C. 19-308.4(e) may also be implicated.

REQUESTED ACTION

I respectfully and humbly request that this bar investigate whether State Attorney for Prince George’s County Maryland, Tara H. Jackson provided supervisory compliance under M.A.R.P.C.19-305.1(a)-(c) in connection with:

- Case no. D-05-CR-24-018576; D-05-CR-25-002111; C-16-CR-25-000762;
- my citizen filed application for statement of charges under case no. D-05-CR-25-000148 (Travis Vazquez), D-05-CR-25-000972 (Jasmine Williams-Luster), D-05-CR-25-000090 (Bryan Kevin Smallwood) where the State’s Attorney Office under Tanner Wise is moving forward to nolle prosecute; and
- in deciding to pursue charges against me after video evidence in possession of the State was not properly screened when Travis Vasquez a white Hispanic repeatedly called me a “nigga” and clearly instigated, provoked, and was the initial aggressor in the affray that occurred on November 24, 2024.

If violations are sustained, I seek appropriate discipline and require remedial measures, including:

- Written protocols to be formulated with internal deadlines for Rule 4-263 disclosures and Rule 4-241 “Bill of Particulars” responses;
- A mandatory victim-conferral policy (that is documented) before the dismissal and/or nolle prosequi of citizen filed charges/cases;
- Prosecutor ethics training emphasizing M.A.R.P.C. 19-303.8(d) and Maryland practice on “Bills of Particulars”;
- A supervisory audit of open matters for discovery and “Bills of Particulars” compliance; and
- Quarterly certifications to the Bar Counsel for 12 months demonstrating adherence.

Also, to grant and other further relief necessary to prevent recurrence and to remedy the prejudice caused here in my situation.

(11:17 a.m.)

(Recording started late.)

MR. R. MOONEY: And, Your Honor, Ryan Mooney, on behalf of Mr. McLendon, who's present to my left. Your Honor, this is a Defense request for a continuance. Mr. Thomas Mooney wants to personally try this case. He has the murder case set before Your Honor. I'd ask for a continuance to the next CA day, I believe that's October 20th. I believe Hick's is September 29, and Mr. McLendon has executed a Hick's waiver. He would agree to waive his Hick's right here today, but not any prior Hick's. And he maintains his right to a speedy trial.

MS. JACKSON: Your Honor, the State doesn't object to the continuance under the guise that they would ask for the Defendant's bond to be revoked. There has been several issues between the victim and the Defendant since this matter. The victims are actually in the courtroom, Mr. and Mrs. Vasquez. They have been harassed, they've indicated, repeatedly. They indicate that the Defendant has shot a BB gun at their dog. He's pulled up in the car at night indicating, like, there they go, I should have finished it when I started it. It has been repeated incidents -- they are neighbors -- to the point where the wife is afraid to leave her kids at

1 home by themselves because of the engagement between the
2 Defendant and their family.

3 Also, the Defendant came up to the State's
4 Office. Apparently, he filed some other charges against
5 the victims, which the State -- the State, Ms. Berman,
6 indicated were retaliatory when they told him that they
7 couldn't talk to him because he was a victim in -- I
8 mean, a Defendant in this matter -- to protect his
9 Constitutional rights, he got belligerent, and somewhat
10 threatening the office front desk clerk and the ASA.

11 THE COURT: Defense?

12 MR. R. MOONEY: Well, I'd ask if we could set
13 the hearing, and the State file a written motion to 14 revoke his bond. I'm not in a position really to argue
15 and get into these issues simply because I don't have 16 enough information. So, I'd ask -- I'd ask that the 17 State file a written motion, allow us to respond to that 18 motion, and then you set it in for a hearing where Mr.
19 Mooney can be present.

20 MS. JACKSON: If for that reason, Your Honor,
21 the Court does deem a motion to be set, the State will be 22 objecting to the continuance for -- for the matter to be 23 tried today, or -- so that the victims could get their 24 recourse and have some peace of mind for their safety and 25 their children's safety.

1 THE COURT: Where's -- where's Mr. Thomas
2 Mooney?

3 MR. R. MOONEY: In the office preparing for 4 this afternoon.

5 THE COURT: All right. Then I'm going to have
6 to ask him to come over --

7 MR. R. MOONEY: Okay.

8 THE COURT: -- because I don't -- we're
9 supposed to pick the jury at 1:30, I don't want to take 10 up time with this, so...

11 MR. R. MOONEY: Right. What time do you -- do
12 you want him here now, or --

13 THE COURT: Yeah. I'd like him to come over as 14 soon as he can.

15 MR. R. MOONEY: Okay.

16 THE COURT: I mean, you know, come over, and 17 if he needs to speak to your client in the hallway,
18 whatever, or if you wanted to take him over to the 19 office --

20 MR. R. MOONEY: Okay.

21 THE COURT: -- as long as, you know, Mr. Mooney
22 knows I need him to come back quickly.

23 MR. R. MOONEY: Okay. Okay. All right. Thank 24 you.

25 THE COURT: I'll pass this case for now.

1 MR. R. MOONEY: All right. Thank you.

2 MS. JACKSON: Thank you.

3 (Case passed at 11:20 a.m.)

4 (11:32 a.m.)

5 THE COURT: Recalling State v. Juan McLendon,
6 C-16-CR-25-762.

7 MS. JACKSON: Chanel Jackson standing in on
8 behalf of ASA Berman for the State.

9 MR. C. MOONEY: And, Your Honor, good morning.
10 Thomas Christopher Mooney on behalf of Mr. McLendon,
11 who's present standing to my left.

12 THE COURT: So this case was called for a 13 continuance earlier with a -- stand-in counsel was 14 present. At the time, the State raised the issue of 15 concerns from their complainants that the Defendant was 16 -- I mean, I assume there's no contact, but that he was 17 contacting them and/or could be interpreted as making
18 threats against them. So that's why I asked the trial
19 attorney to come over, so...

20 MR. C. MOONEY: And I appreciate that fact.
21 And the issues that I -- I was made aware of in the 22 hallway seem to surround the pet of the neighbor in the 23 case -- the dogs.

24 MS. JACKSON: So, to my understanding, it's a
25 couple of incidents. One is with the dogs, where the dog

1 was shot with a BB gun. The other incident where the
2 wife, Mrs. -- Mr. and Mrs. Vasquez were outside, it was
3 evening, a car pulled up with the Defendant, the windows
4 rolled down, and was, like, yeah, that's them right
5 there, I should have finished it from the beginning.
6 They sat -- the car sat there, the victims kind of 7 scurried in the house, and the car sat in front of their
8 house for awhile, then went back over to the Defendant's
9 house, and then it left after 20 minutes. It's been 10 incidents where they -- apparently the Defendant has 11 cameras on his home so when they come -- they're 12 neighbors, so when they come in or leave, the Defendant
13 comes out and he's pointing them out, like, yeah, that's 14 them, those are the people.

15 THE COURT: Are they right next door neighbors?

16 MR. C. MOONEY: They're across the street from 17 one another.

18 MS. JACKSON: Across the street.

19 THE COURT: Across the street?

20 MR. C. MOONEY: Yeah.

21 MS. JACKSON: Yes.

22 MR. C. MOONEY: Mr. McLendon lives with his 23 father and there have been ongoing issues between all of 24 the parties. Most recently litigated in July of 2025 in 25 front of the Animal Commission, where -- where a finding

1 was made adverse to the alleged victims in this case. So
2 I know that you've heard a couple of things about the dog
3 and that kind of thing, but Mr. McLendon did bring the 4 report and I'll just reference these -- oh, Page Number
5 7, it says, "The conclusions find that -- Vazquez, guilty
6 of violating 3.13, manner of keeping animals; violates 3-
7 132, public nuisance conditions; violates 3-135, animal
8 at large, prohibited; guilty of 3-142, irresponsible
9 owner."

10 So the dog has been a point of contention. The 11 allegations from the Defense side would be that this dog
12 continues to roam the neighborhood and create a danger,
13 comes onto the McLendon property. It is further alleged 14 -- and apparently it was the subject matter of this
15 particular proceeding that the dog was on Mr. McLendon's
16 property when he took action on his father's behalf. His 17 father -- how old is your dad?

18 THE DEFENDANT: He's 80, 81.

19 MR. C. MOONEY: He's -- he's elderly. So, yes,
20 there is a peace order in effect in this case. There's 21 been no violation of a peace order filed. And that Mr.
22 McLendon pulls up in a car in front of his home, which 23 happens to also be in front of their home because they 24 live across from one another, I don't know that it's so
25 shocking an event. Obviously, there are issues between

1 the parties, but Mr. McLendon has not violated the peace
2 order which would be the -- the actual mechanism to deal
3 with this particular dispute as opposed to a request to 4 revoke his bond because trial counsel is in a conflicting
5 trial. I don't know that that necessarily is going to 6 serve any purpose.

7 And, moreover, I don't think that there's a
8 basis that would substantiate his lost of liberty. Mr.
9 McLendon understands there's a peace order in place. He 10 understands that at any time the adverse party can go and 11 make these complaints and it will be fully litigated in 12 front of a judge. And I think it does really need to be 13 fully litigated in order to get to all of the issues that 14 exist. He shows up for Court; he's actually prepared for 15 trial; I have a trial conflict, yet, that is 16 unfortunately my problem in that respect because I
17 understand that we're going to move forward on the murder
18 trial today picking a jury at 1:30.

19 MS. JACKSON: So, Your Honor --

20 THE COURT: What about your -- your motion for 21 judgment of acquittal?

22 MR. C. MOONEY: On the -- on the --

23 THE COURT: On this case.

24 MR. C. MOONEY: -- on today?

25 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

1 MR. C. MOONEY: Well it would require the State
2 to put on their case before I can move --

3 THE COURT: I asked you that because your
4 client filed a motion for judgment of acquittal, so I
5 thought you --

6 MR. C. MOONEY: Oh, you're talking about the 7 McLendon matter?

8 THE COURT: Yeah.

9 MR. C. MOONEY: Mr. McLendon --

10 THE COURT: He's filed a motion to dismiss,
11 speedy trial, I mean, he's filed a number of --

12 MR. C. MOONEY: He has filed some motions.

13 THE COURT: Are you going to argue that today?

14 MR. C. MOONEY: I'd prefer to handle all of the 15 proceedings in -- as you know -- as you know, and you're 16 well aware, my focus has been on the murder trial that's 17 before you today not anticipating to move forward on 18 this.

19 THE COURT: Well, I mean, he filed it, maybe he 20 wants to argue it himself.

21 MR. C. MOONEY: No, I'd rather he not do that.

22 THE COURT: I'd say you'd rather him not file
23 it in the first place.

24 MR. C. MOONEY: It -- well, no comment. No
25 comment on that.

1 THE COURT: Because the -- I mean, I don't know
2 anything about this case other than what you just told
3 me, but it seems the motion makes some admissions.

4 MR. C. MOONEY: Oh.

5 THE COURT: You know.

6 MR. C. MOONEY: Mr. McLendon, he's a -- he's
7 former military, he's participated in our Veteran's
8 Court, he is a college student actively taking online
9 courses, 12 credits right now with Stevenson University,
10 he's fully employed.

11 THE COURT: Pre-law?

12 MR. C. MOONEY: Sorry?

13 THE COURT: Pre-law?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Pre-law.

15 MR. C. MOONEY: Ah, okay. So, he fancies
16 himself a writer and that's about all I can say about 17 that. But I can tell you this, by virtue of the State's 18 request, he understands that his neighbors maybe feel
19 compelled to make complaints that can be the subject
20 matter of a hearing or a proceeding. He also understands
21 that his case is important to him and his liberty, and I
22 can say with some degree of confidence that Mr. McLendon
23 will live a peaceful life pending the next court date.
24 That taking him from the community is not the appropriate
25 thing to do at this stage.

1 THE COURT: Any -- anything else from the
2 State?

3 MS. JACKSON: Yes, Your Honor. The issue is
4 prior to -- the Defense raised the Defendant's father.
5 Prior to the Defendant coming home from incarceration,
6 there were no issues between these neighbors and the 7 elderly father and wife. Moreover, having an issue with 8 the dog, you do not take into your own account and shoot
9 a BB gun. My understanding is the BB gun incident is 10 when the dog was in the property of the victims in this 11 matter, not in the --

12 THE COURT: So the BB gun incident is the 13 nature of the charges, or is this after --

14 MS. JACKSON: No, this is after the fact.
15 That's what I'm saying --

16 THE COURT: So when was the alleged BB gun
17 incident?

18 MS. JACKSON: When was the alleged -- I'm sorry
19 -- the victims are here, I need the specifics.

20 What was the -- when did the BB gun incident
21 happen?

22 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: That happened after the
23 incident.

24 MS. JACKSON: Yeah, but give me a time.

25 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Last month.

1 MR. C. MOONEY: It was June. June of 2025.

2 THE COURT: Is that the same report --

3 MS. JACKSON: Is that that?

4 THE COURT: -- that you were talking about, Mr.
5 Mooney?

6 MR. C. MOONEY: Yeah.

7 MS. JACKSON: May I see that?

8 MR. C. MOONEY: Yeah.

9 MS. JACKSON: Also, the issue is for the 10 incident that Defense indicates they live across from 11 each -- close to each other -- they live across the 12 street from each other. The -- the statement I got from 13 the wife is that he came up to their home, which would be 14 on their side of the street, rolled down the window, was 15 like, yeah, that's them, I should have finished it. It's 16 coupled with the words and the actions.

17 Also, the Defendant, when they come outside --
18 and so, the fact that they live across the street, him
19 coming outside and then speaking regarding them, she says
20 he speaks loudly, yeah, that's them, I should have 21 finished them before doing any of this. So it's like -- 22 there's no reason for him to be talking about them, to 23 them, loud enough for them to hear him. And that's where 24 her concern is where she's not even going to work because 25 she's afraid -- it's the summertime, her kids were home,

1 so she was like I can't leave them home. So she's
2 staying home to protect her house from this Defendant.

3 For that reason, that's the concern for the 4 safety of her family that the State is asking if we're
5 going to continue this and not address this going forward
6 today, that his bond be revoked. And I understand
7 Defense is asking that a hearing being posed, but we were
8 given today to understand that the continuance was coming
9 today.

10 THE COURT: All right. The Court is not going 11 to take any action today regarding Defendant's bond. For 12 -- however, the Court is going to, again, impress upon
13 the Defense that there should be zero communication,
14 whether verbal or nonverbal, whether direct or indirect,
15 to any witnesses in this case period. Period.

16 If something else happens with the dog, then
17 you need to stay in the house and just call the police.
18 But the Court won't tolerate any further actions,
19 contact, period.

20 I don't find that even putting you on home
21 detention would suffice, because -- you know, if an
22 incident occurred, then he still could make statements
23 from his porch, something like that, so -- but I want to 24 be clear that I take this seriously -- take the other
25 side seriously. The Court date will -- for this case,

1 will resolve this case. But I take it seriously that
2 witnesses, or complainants, are feeling that they're
3 being intimidated. And I will take action -- I'll take
4 quick and strong action if this issue is raised again.

5 THE DEFENDANT: Well, Your Honor --

6 THE COURT: So, if there's anybody else --
7 anybody -- I'll just say that. Like that -- like that's
8 it. That's it.

9 MR. C. MOONEY: Oh. What is the next court
10 date, Your Honor?

11 THE COURT: The next CA day is October 20th?

12 MR. C. MOONEY: 20th.

13 THE COURT: How many witnesses for the State?

14 MS. JACKSON: It should be three on State's 15 side.

16 MR. C. MOONEY: And likely -- I mean, likely,
17 two to three on our side.

18 THE COURT: All right. I -- do you think it
19 should stay on a regular CA day, or do you want a
20 separate date?

21 MR. C. MOONEY: This is a case that -- the 22 incident in question is captured on video. The issues
23 are very straightforward, so I don't anticipate a lengthy 24 trial. I think it's a CA day trial, Your Honor.

25 MS. JACKSON: Your Honor, I would -- if

1 possible, if we can get a different date so it doesn't
2 have to be set out so far.

3 MR. C. MOONEY: Well --

4 MS. JACKSON: If the Court is considering
5 putting it on a date other than CA day?

6 THE COURT: I didn't -- you know, if it's one
7 day then I'm comfortable with CA day. If it's multiple
8 days, then maybe if the schedules allow then I can look
9 into it.

10 MR. C. MOONEY: This is not a multi-day trial.

11 MS. JACKSON: All I can rule off is the fact
12 that if both sides have three or four witnesses a piece
13 then it may go over if it's a CA day case. So that means
14 that the State may have other cases, so it may 15 potentially bleed into.

16 THE COURT: Yeah. All right. I'll just set it
17 on the -- all right, I'm going to make sure -- okay, so
18 the Court -- well, do ya'll -- the Hick's date is 19 September 29th, do ya'll -- do all the sides have a date
20 available before that?

21 MS. JACKSON: One second, Your Honor. Court's
22 indulgence, please.

23 MR. C. MOONEY: Well, I can tell you, so that
24 I'm honest and transparent, I do have specially set cases
25 September 8th, September 15th, September 22nd and

1 September 29th. And September 2nd, which is next week.

2 THE COURT: I wouldn't set this on a Monday.
3 Probably like a Wednesday or Thursday, if the sides have 4 a Wednesday or Thursday available before the end of 5 September.

6 MS. JACKSON: I'm sorry, Your Honor, one
7 moment. My -- my colleague is responding.

8 MR. C. MOONEY: We could do it Thursday,
9 September 25th.

10 MS. JACKSON: I think that day would work for 11 the State as well.

12 THE COURT: Let me double check. Hey, how is 13 September 25th for me to set up a CA case, we're trying
14 to get it done before the -- it's a Thursday. Oh, you
15 already got six. Does that mean -- just so we're clear,
16 six, like, you're putting on the actual pending docket, I
17 mean, you got six trials. That's going to spread -- is 18 that it? Okay. Okay. Thanks.

19 So, I'm told on the 25th, it's -- you know,
20 from the Court is feasible, but as of right now it looks
21 like there are already six other trials set that day. Of 22 course, we have no idea how many judges, which of those 23 trials are going, but if you want the 25th, I'll set the 24 25th.

25 MS. JACKSON: Okay.

1 MR. C. MOONEY: And I'm -- I'm only saying it
2 with a caveat that I do have a murder Monday, Tuesday,
3 Wednesday, but I assume --

4 THE COURT: Of the 25th?

5 MR. C. MOONEY: The 22nd I start a trial here?

6 THE COURT: Who is -- who is your judge?

7 MR. C. MOONEY: That is Judge Simpkins.

8 THE COURT: Is she going to be back by then?

9 MR. C. MOONEY: I don't know. Actually, I -- I
10 did -- well, I did receive something saying that they
11 moved the motions in my case to that -- that Monday, so I
12 would have to presume that she is. It came from her
13 chambers.

14 THE COURT: What's your feeling of confidence
15 that you're going to finish in those three days?

16 MR. C. MOONEY: It's not a complicated case.
17 I'm assuming -- I can't speak for the State, but I'm 18 assuming if the State puts on the case that I would 19 anticipate that it's a three-day trial. And assuming 20 that we start on time on Monday and things keep moving.

21 THE COURT: All right. All right. So the --
22 the Court's going to continue this matter to September
23 25th. I find good cause to continue it until September
24 25th. The Defendant's request to continue is granted due
25 to -- excuse me -- Defense having another trial scheduled

1 today. Yeah.

2 MS. JACKSON: Thank you.

3 THE COURT: Sir, you need to let your attorney
4 file motions in this case.

5 THE DEFENDANT: Oh, that's fine, Judge. Yep.
6 Oh, can I just add something, Judge? I didn't come here
7 to argue with no one or make any allegations but the 8 allegations that were made against me --

9 THE COURT: What's your question?

10 THE DEFENDANT: I'm just saying that the 11 allegations that were --

12 THE COURT: What's your question? Do you have 13 a question?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Well, my question is just that 15 what can I do if people make false allegations against 16 me? If they're not -- if they can't prove these 17 allegations, what can I do? Like, if someone's dog
18 attacks my father, and I shoot their dogs with a BB gun
19 and they come into Court and miscontrue the facts, what 20 am I supposed to do?

21 THE COURT: Well, I was prepared to just let it
22 go to the 25th, however, if you want to contest this
23 issue about contact, I'll set a hearing before then, then
24 if I'm convinced I'll revoke your bond outright. So you
25 want --

1 MR. C. MOONEY: We're not requesting a hearing.

2 THE COURT: Of course, not. That's why you
3 need to let your attorney do the talking.

4 THE DEFENDANT: Okay.

5 THE COURT: That's it for today.

6 MR. C. MOONEY: All right. Thank you.

7 MS. JACKSON: Thank you.
